Consumer Rights

Developmentally disabled individuals have the same rights and privileges guaranteed to all citizens by the constitution and laws of the United States and the constitution and the laws of the State of Arizona.

A.R.S 36-551.01 enumerates additional rights of the developmentally disabled, including, but not limited to:

- Protection from physical, psychological, verbal or sexual abuse;
- Publicly supported educational services;
- Equal employment opportunities;
- Fair compensation for labor;
- Right to own, sell or lease property;
- Presumption of legal competency;
- Right to marry;
- Right to petition;
- Right to an Individual Support Program Plan (ISPP);
- Right to ISPP progress notes;
- Right to participate in ISPP and placement decisions;
- Right to be free from unnecessary and excessive medications;
- Individuals in residential programs have the right to a humane and clean physical environment, the right to communication and visits and the right to personal property;
- Individuals in residential programs have the right to live in the least restrictive alternative;
- Right to withdraw from services;
- Right to be informed of their rights upon admission to services.

I have read and received a copy of these Consumer Rights.
